ACT OF INCORPORATION,

CONSTITUTION,

BY-LAWS, EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

AND

LIST OF MEMBERS

OF THE

Metropolitan Club,

MONTREAL.

REVISED TO 1ST JANUARY, 1894.

Metropolitan Club.

Established in 1874.

An Act to incorporate the Metropolitan Club of Montreal.

WHEREAS the persons hereinafter named, with a large number of others in the city of Montreal, have associated themselves for the establishment of a club for social purposes, and have prayed to be incorporated by the name of the "Metropolitan Club," and it is expedient to grant the prayer of their petition: Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the consent of the Legislature of Quebec, enacts as follows:

1. The following persons, namely: Robert Archer, William B. Chapman, Edward A. Whitehead, William W. Watson, C. Alexander Delisle, E. Cornelius Monk, Frederick B. Mathews, and such other persons as are now members or shall hereafter become members of the said association, under the rules and regulations of the said association, shall be and are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate in deed and in name by the name of the "Metropolitan Club," for the above purposes, and shall, by the same name, from time to time, and all times hereafter, be able and capable to purchase, acquire, hold, possess and enjoy, and to have, exchange, take and receive, to them and their successors, all lands, tenements and hereditaments, and all real or immovable estates being and situate in the city of Montreal or its vicinity, necessary for the actual use and occupation of the said corporation for the purpose for which they are created, and the said property to hypothecate, sell, alienate and dispose of, and to acquire other instead thereof, whensoever the said corporation may deem it proper to do so, but such real estate shall not exceed the annual value of ten thousand dollars currency; and the constitution, rules and regulations now in force touching the admission and expulsion of members and the management and conduct generally of the affairs and concerns of the said association, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the laws of this province, shall be the constitution, rules and regulations of the said corporation: provided always, that the said corporation may, from time to time, alter, repeal and change, in whole or in part, such constitution, rules and regulations, in the manner provided by the constitution, rules and regulations of the said corporation.

2. All property and effects now owned by, or held in trust for the said association, are hereby vested in the said corporation, and shall be applied solely to the purposes of the said corporation; and all debts, claims for subscriptions or contributions of members, and other rights accruing to the said association under its constitution, rules and regulations, shall be vested in the corporation constituted by this act; and the said corporation shall be charged with the liabilities and obligations of the said association.

3. No member of the corporation shall be liable for any of the debts thereof, beyond a sum which shall be equal to the amount of the original entrance fee and the respective share of every member in the amount of the subsequent contributions or divisions which might hereafter be levied or allotted between all the members of the Club for the time being, in equal shares, and which might remain unpaid by such member; and any member of the corporation, not being in arrears, may retire therefrom, and shall cease to be such member, on giving notice to that effect, in such form as may be required by the constitution, rules and regulations thereof, and thereafter shall be wholly free from liability for any debt or engagement of the Club; and every member expelled or retiring from the Club, or whose name shall have been struck out of the list of members, for any of the reasons mentioned in the constitution, rules and regulations of the Club, shall, ipso facto, forfeit all rights of membership.

4. The said corporation shall have power to appoint such officers, administrators and servants as may be required for the due management of its affairs, and to allow them respectively a reasonable and suitable remuneration; and all the officers so appointed may exercise such other powers and authorities, for the due management and administration of the affairs of the said corporation, as may be required of them by the constitution, rules and regulations of the said corporation.

5. The rents, revenues and profits arising out of every description of movable and immovable property belonging to the said corporation shall be appropriated and employed to the exclusive use of the said corporation, to the construction and repairs of the buildings required for the purposes of the said corporation, and to the payment of expenses legitimately incurred in carrying out any of the objects relating to the aforesaid purposes.

Metropolitan Club.

CONSTITUTION.

NAME.

ART. 1. This Association shall be incorporated and known as the "METROPOLITAN CLUB."

OBJECT.

ART. 2. Its objects shall be social and literary, politics and religious questions of every description being absolutely excluded.

COMMITTEE.

ART. 3. All the affairs of the Club shall be managed by an Executive Committee of nine, elected annually. The old Committee shall be posted by the Secretary on the notice board (at least 10 days previous to the Annual Meeting), two of whom must be elected. Other nominations for the Committee shall be sent in writing to the Secretary (signed by two members other than the nominee), at least ten days before the Annual Meeting, and all such nominations shall be posted by the Secretary on the notice board (without mention of the nominating members).

at least seven days before the Annual Meeting. The Committee shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting from the nominees so posted, and shall hold office for one year, or until replaced as hereinafter provided. The Committee shall appoint from their number, a President. Vice-President. Secretary and Treasurer. and have power to fill vacancies should they occur: and shall enact such by-laws and rules for the use of the Club by the members. and their conduct in the Club House, as they may think proper. fix penalties for the violation of such rules, enforce the same, and in their discretion remit such penalties,

The Executive Committee shall, at any time after the annual election, have power to increase their number. but not to exceed twelve.

The Committee may elect one of their number Honorary President. They may appoint him a member of all or any of the sub-committees.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Art. 4. The President shall preside at all meetings, either of the Club or Committee. or. in his absence, the Vice-President. Should both be absent. the Chairman must be appointed by the meeting. The Chairman at any meeting shall have his vote as a member of the Club or of the Committee, and also a casting vote. The Secretary shall be, under the Committee. the Executive Officer of the Club, engage and discharge servants. keep a list of members. give notice and keep minutes of meetings. and conduct the correspondence. The Treasurer shall collect and disburse all moneys of the Club, under the direction of the Committee, keep the accounts, and attend generally to the financial affairs. He shall also keep a list of the members, and shall render a statement of the affairs of the Club at the Annual Meeting, or whenever the Committee shall call upon him to do so.

The offices of the Secretary and Treasurer may, in the discretion of the Club, be held by one person.

NEW MEMBERS.

Art. 5. The names of Candidates desiring admission, their profession and residence, and the names of their proposers and seconders, shall be entered upon a notice board kept for the purpose, and shall be balloted for at the first ballot which takes place after the lapse of one week from the date of being so posted. It shall be the duty of the Secretary, when the time for posting has expired, to notify the members by addressing to each of them a circular containing the particulars set forth on the notice board.

Candidates shall sign an agreement to pay fees if elected.

No person under 21 years of age shall be eligible.

BALLOT.

Art. 6. The ballot shall be secret, and held between 8 a.m. and 10 p.m. on the first Tuesday in each month. Each member shall be furnished with a slip containing the names of candidates, and may make a mark for "yes" or "no" (as directed on the slip), opposite any name on it, and deposit it in the ballot box; but his vote shall not be counted for or against any person not so marked. One negative in seven shall exclude, the votes being counted by any two members of the Committee, to whom the box shall be delivered, locked, with a list of voters. Twenty-one votes shall be necessary for an election.

No rejected candidate can be again proposed within six months of the date of his rejection.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.

ART. 7. Upon the election of a member, he shall be notified of the fact by the Secretary; furnished with a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws, and requested to remit the amount of his entrance fee and subscription to the Treasurer; pending which he is not admitted to the privileges of the Club.

The entrance fee shall be fifty dollars, and the annual subscription twenty-five dollars, the latter payable on the first of May in each year. Any member joining after that date will pay full subscription, unless elected after such period in each year as may be fixed by the Committee, in which case his subscription is held good until the end of the next Club year.

If the entrance fee remain unpaid one month after election, the Executive Committee shall have power to declare the election void.

If, at any time after the election of a candidate, the Committee shall be of opinion that he has been elected under misrepresentation, or if material information as to his position has been withheld, they shall have power to erase his name from the list of members.

ARREARS.

Art. 8. The name of any member whose annual subscription remains unpaid on the first June following, may be posted on the notice board; and if his subscription be not paid on the 15th June, the Committee may cause his name to be erased from the list of members. He may, however, be re-admitted, upon assigning to them reasons, which they may consider sufficient, for having failed to make payments.

RIGHT OF VOTING.

Art. 9. No member shall be entitled to vote at any meeting while posted for any dues to the Club.

ABSENTEES.

Art. 10. Any member who is not indebted to the Club, and who may intend being absent from the city (at a distance of not less than fifty miles), for a year or longer period, may, by giving notice to that effect in writing to the Secretary, have his name placed upon the list of absentee members, and be thereby exempted from paying his subscription during such absence, and shall be re-admitted to all privileges on return, by giving notice of the same, and paying his subscription for the then current year: but he shall not be called upon for such subscription unless his stay within the prescribed limit shall exceed in all one month in each year of such exempted period.

A member staying for more than one month within the prescribed limit, and not giving notice of the same, shall not thereby be released from the dues thus incurred to the Club.

PRIVILEGED MEMBERS.

ART. 11. Officers of the Imperial Army and Navy, permanent Officers of the Canadian Army, and other strangers not residing within fifty miles of Montreal, and whose residence there is temporary, may, on recommendation of the Committee, be eligible to election as "Privileged Members," subject to payment of the annual subscription only ($25), or pro rata for shorter periods, in order to make all subscriptions fall due on same date. They shall enjoy all the privileges of members, except the right of voting or being elected members of the Committee, and they shall have no interest in the Club's property. Such candidates shall be marked "Privileged" on the list of those to be balloted for.

TRANSIENT MEMBERS.

Any other stranger living in Montreal, whose residence there is uncertain or liable to be terminated by circumstances beyond his control, may be admitted under this clause, subject to the semi-annual approval of the Committee, on payment of a fee of thirty dollars ($30), per annum, or pro rata for shorter periods. Such members shall be called "Transient Members," and shall, subject to the foregoing distinction, have the same rights and privileges as Privileged Members.

TEMPORARY MEMBERS.

ART. 12. Any gentleman not residing within fifty miles of Montreal may be introduced in the Club for a period not exceeding two weeks, save by the consent of the Committee, who may extend the term to one month, as hereinafter mentioned. Any gentleman so introduced shall be termed a "Temporary Member," and the member introducing him shall be responsible for his conduct in the Club House, and for any dues incurred by him during his temporary membership. A card of admission will be furnished by the Secretary.

No stranger, unless by consent of the Committee, shall be entitled to enjoy the privileges of the Club for more than one month in six months, and such privileges shall not entitle him to bring a non-member into the Club House. The Committee may extend the term of such temporary member, for a period not exceeding three months, upon payment by his proposer of $5 per month.

The privileges of temporary membership may at any time be withdrawn by the Committee.

INTRODUCTION OF NON-MEMBERS.

ART. 13. Any member shall have the privilege of asking a friend or friends to breakfast, lunch, dinner or supper, but no member shall at other times introduce a non-member into any other room than the ante-room. The Committee may at any time, or in any particular case, suspend or restrict the privilege of introduction upon a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Committee specially summoned for the purpose.

SMOKING.

ART. 14. Smoking shall not be allowed in the Reading Room at any time, nor in the Coffee Room until after 10 p.m., nor at any meeting of the Club.

PAYMENT OF DUES.

ART. 15. Members should pay all bills for dues and expenses incurred before leaving the house, and the names of all members whose accounts remain unpaid on the first day of each month shall be posted on the fifteenth. All credit shall be stopped to any member while posted.

HOURS.

ART. 16. The Club House shall be open for the reception of members from 7.30 a.m. until 1.00 a.m. every day, except on Saturday and Sunday, when it shall be closed, and the lights put out, at midnight.

MEETINGS.

ART. 17. A general meeting of the members shall be held annually on the second Wednesday in April for the election of officers for the ensuing year, at which the accounts for the past year shall be presented, and a report submitted by the Committee on the general state of the Club's affairs, and any alterations or additions to the Constitution be considered; the report to be printed and distributed among the members, or laid upon the table, not less than seven days before the meeting. The meeting shall be called at 8 p.m., and twenty members shall form a quorum.

The fiscal year shall end on the first of March in each year. A special general meeting shall be called for any purpose by the President, or, in his absence, by the Vice-President, or on the written request of twenty members addressed to the Secretary, who shall give the members one week's notice of the meeting, specifying its object.

EXPULSION AND SUSPENSION OF MEMBERS.

ART. 18. If, in the opinion of the Committee, any member of the Club shall become objectionable to the members, or his conduct in or out of the Club House be injurious to the character or interests of the Club, the Committee shall have power to suspend such member from the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding three months, or in their discretion to call for his resignation. Should such member, after notice, disregard the order of suspension, or fail to resign within ten days after he is called upon to do so, the Committee may erase his name from the list of members; and any person whose name is so erased shall ipso facto cease to be a member of the Club.

Provided that the decision as to the suspension, or demand for resignation or expulsion of a member must have been agreed to by two-thirds of the members of the Committee, and that all the Committee must be specially summoned to consider such a case.

The member so suspended, called upon to resign, or expelled, may appeal from the decision of the Committee within two weeks from the communication to him of such decision.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary, upon receiving from such member a notice of his intention to appeal, to call a special meeting of the Club, and to notify the members of its object. By a decision of a majority of the members present at such meeting, the decision of the Committee may be confirmed, annulled or modified. Any person who has been expelled, or has resigned after having been called upon to do so, shall not, on any pretext, be allowed to enter the Club House.

EX-MEMBERS.

ART 19. Members whose dues are all paid may resign, by giving notice in writing to the Committee. Any member who withdraws, resigns, or is expelled, shall cease to be a member, and shall forfeit all right or claim to or on the Club funds or property, all payments that he has made reverting to the general benefit of the Club.

The Committee may, at any time, reconsider the resignation of any member who may request them to do so; and in the event of any member who has resigned when in good standing, or been suspended, being re-admitted to membership, the Committee shall have the power to determine the amount of arrears to be paid.

PROXIES.

ART. 20. Voting by proxy shall not be allowed at either general or committee meetings.

DOGS.

ART. 21. No dogs shall be allowed in the Club House.

GRATUITIES.

ART. 22. No gratuity shall be given by any member to servants or employees of the Club, but the Committee are empowered to provide accommodation for the Treasurer and Secretary, or either of them. The Treasurer and Secretary are ex-officio honorary members of the Club, during their term of office.

GAMES.

ART. 23. No round games at cards shall be played in the Club House, nor shall any game of any sort be played in the Club House on Sunday. Points at whist shall not exceed one quarter dollar. Stakes at Billiards not to exceed: Pyramids, ten cents a ball; Pool, twenty-five cents, and ten cent lives.

No bet on any game of cards or billiards shall exceed one dollar.

RECIPROCITY.

ART. 24. The Committees shall have power to admit members of other Clubs to the privileges of this, without fee, provided that they also extend to this Club all the privileges granted them.*

INTERPRETATIONS.

ART. 25. All rules and regulations made by the Committee, and their interpretation thereof, shall be binding upon the Club until reversed by a general meeting.

---

* The privileges of the Club have been extended to the Hamilton Club, the London Club, the Garrison Club (Quebec), and the Ottawa Club, under the provisions of this article.

BY-LAWS

OF THE

Metropolitan Club.

I.

COMMITTEE.

The ordinary meetings, at which four shall form a quorum, shall be held at such times as the Committee may decide. In the absence of the President and Vice-President, a Chairman for the day shall be first elected: and the minutes of the last meeting having been read, the question shall be put by the Chairman, "That they be confirmed."

If the minutes be objected to by a majority of the members present, the particular subject objected to will be reserved for consideration, either at an extraordinary meeting or at the next ordinary meeting, as may be decided upon, and if then accepted by the majority of the members present, the Chairman will affix his signature.

All proceedings at such meetings of the Executive Committee shall be strictly private.

II.

SUB-COMMITTEES.

1. Sub-Committees may be appointed, from time to time, to attend to such matters as may need special supervision.

2. The Hon. President, President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be ex-officio members of all Sub-Committees.

3. The standing Sub-Committees shall be: the House Committee, the Kitchen Committee, the Committee on Wines and Cigars, the Reading Room Committee, the Committee on Billiards and Cards, and the Bowling Alley Committee.

The House Committee shall have charge of the Club building and all Club property.

The Kitchen Committee shall have charge of all matters relating to the Kitchen and Coffee Room, and shall receive and adjust all complaints relating thereto.

The Committee on Wines and Cigars shall have charge of all Wines, Spirits, etc., and Cigars, and shall receive and settle all complaints relating thereto.

The Reading Room Committee shall have charge of all reading matter and writing materials, and see to the renewal of subscriptions to all papers, magazines, etc.

The Committee on Billiards and Cards shall exercise supervision over the Billiard Room and Card Room.

The Bowling Alley Committee shall have charge of the Bowling Alley and Fives Court.

These Sub-Committees shall be elected by the Executive Committee after the annual meeting. They shall be under the direction of the Executive Committee to whom they shall report when called upon to do so.

The names of members serving on the several Sub-Committees shall be posted on the Notice Board.

III.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall have the general control and superintendence of the establishment under the Committee.

As Secretary he shall attend all Committee meetings and keep minutes of the proceedings.

In all his written official communications he shall state expressly that they are made by direction of the Committee.

Besides his attendance upon the Committee he shall conduct the official correspondence of the Club, and prepare reports when called upon by the Executive Committee to do so.

He shall attend to all communications, and receive information upon all subjects connected with the business of the Club, and particularly all matters relating to the members thereof.

IV.

TREASURER.

1. The Treasurer shall keep regular accounts of all the financial concerns of the Club: examine the accounts of tradesmen previously to their being submitted for final adjustment, and pay the same when passed by the Committee.

He shall place before the Committee, at the weekly meeting, the receipts for payments authorized at the previous meeting, and shall submit a monthly statement of all receipts and disbursements, with the bank book showing the balance at the credit of the Club.

His books shall be always open to the inspection of the Committee.

2. All payments shall be made by cheques, which must be signed by the Treasurer and one other member of the Committee, three of whom shall be named for the purpose. In the absence of the Treasurer, any two of the three so named may sign cheques.

V.

STEWARD.

The Steward shall have the custody of the plate, china, glass, cutlery, linen, and general stores, and shall receive and check all supplies and keep account of the same.

He shall be responsible for the cleanliness and order of the House, and have the general control and superintendence of the servants, for whose conduct and cleanly appearance he shall be responsible. In cases of misconduct or disobedience of orders, he shall report the same at once to the Secretary. He shall also see that good order and economy are maintained. He shall render daily to the Treasurer a statement of amounts sold, cash received, and amounts due, and shall be charged for all deficiencies which may occur in money, stock, etc., placed under his care. He shall render bills to members, and receive payment. He shall enforce the Rules of the Club, and all orders of the Committee, and immediately report to the Secretary any infringement thereof.

VI.

BAR MAN.

The Bar Man shall have the custody of all wines, liquors, cigars, etc., for which he shall be responsible.

He shall account daily to the Treasurer for all cash received, and give a memorandum thereof, as also of all amounts due by members for supplies received from the bar. The bar shall always be open until the closing of the House.

VII.

HALL PORTER.

He shall enter in his book the name of every member coming into the house during the day.

Strangers calling to see members shall be shown by him to the Reception Room, and intimation of their arrival immediately sent by him to the member inquired for in the House.

If a letter or telegram for an absent member be applied for by another member, who may wish to forward it, the latter may be required to pay the charges (if any), and to sign an acknowledgment of having received the same.

VIII.

WAITERS.

The waiters, and all other servants in the establishment, shall be subject to the orders of the Steward, and shall perform such duties as he may prescribe.

Whenever possible, the Club waiters shall be employed in preference to others at private dinners, and shall be paid at the rate of one dollar ($1) for the evening.

IX.

YARDMAN.

The Yardman shall perform all such duties as the Secretary or Steward may, from time to time, direct.

X.

GENERAL SERVANTS.—REGULATIONS.

No employee or servant shall receive, under penalty of immediate dismissal, any present whatever from the members or tradesmen of the Club, and any tradesman detected in giving such will be forthwith discontinued and never dealt with again.

No servant shall absent himself from the Club House without leave from the Steward.

No stranger shall be admitted into the Club except on business, and the servants are strictly prohibited from receiving visitors or followers.

Servants and tradesmen shall not use the front entrance.

Servants, while on duty, shall not talk to each other, except on matters connected with their business; and no servant is permitted to address an individual member in the house, on matters either personal or relative to the concerns of the Club. All communications of the latter kind to be made to the Secretary for the information of the Committee.

If any money or articles shall be found by the servants in the Club House, they shall be delivered to the Secretary through the Steward.

No application for re-instatement of a servant, who may have been dismissed on the representation of a member, shall be read or taken into consideration, unless it come through, and be recommended by, the member on whose representation he or she was dismissed.

No servant shall smoke in any part of the house.

No servant of the Club shall be sent out of the House on any errand, on any pretence whatever, unless sent out upon Club business by a member of the Committee, or to post letters at stated periods.

Every servant engaged by the Club shall sign an agreement whereby two weeks' wages shall be retained. Said money retained to be forfeited by any servant leaving without notice, or discharged for unsatisfactory performance of duty, drunkenness, absence without leave, or similar cause.

XI.

COFFEE ROOM.

Cold suppers may be served till the closing of the House. Hot suppers till 11.30 p.m., or later by giving notice before 8 p.m.

Special dinners may be served at any time by giving timely notice to the Steward.

Wines, liquors and cigars till closing of the House, after which no orders of any kind shall be received, unless specially authorized by the Committee. Members ordering special dinner or luncheon, shall fill up the order themselves, and not employ the waiters to do so. The bills shall be submitted with the accounts.

The Kitchen Committee shall examine the bills of fare daily, to see that proper articles are supplied and charged for at fair rates.

The bill of fare for the day shall be posted in the Coffee Room at such hours as the Committee may decide.

XII.

COOK.

The Cook shall receive instructions from the Kitchen Committee through the Steward.

XIII.

BILLIARDS AND CARDS.

No member shall occupy a table for more than one game of 100 points at English billiards, 50 points at the American game, or one game of pyramids, if any other member should wish to play.

A slate shall be kept, on which members wishing to play shall put down their names, and they shall have preference according to the order in which their names have been registered; pools in all cases to have preference.

XIV.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

1. Ladies may be admitted into the Club House only between the hours of one and five p.m., but not on Saturdays or Sundays.

2. A list of all newspapers, magazines, periodicals and pamphlets taken by the Club shall be posted in the Reading Room.

3. No pamphlet, advertisement, or notice of any kind shall be laid on the tables or put up in the Club by a member, except by the consent of the Committee.

4. No member shall take from the Club House or mutilate any newspaper, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, book, or any other property of the Club.

5. No parcels shall be left in the hall.

6. The names of all temporary members shall be posted on the notice board.

7. Applications for renewal of membership, under Art. 19 of the Constitution, shall be made in writing to the Secretary, in the form prescribed by the Committee.

8. No eatables, except sandwiches or biscuits, shall be allowed in any room but the Coffee Room, and no drink shall be served in the hall. Any wine brought into the House by members, for use in the Club, shall be charged corkage.

9. Parties using the private dining room may smoke after 8 p.m.

10. No hats, sticks, umbrellas, coats, etc., shall be left anywhere but in the Cloak Room.

11. No member shall enter the Bar Room on any pretext, except members of the Committee on business of the Club, and no member, except on special duty, will be allowed to go down into the basement story.

12. Members shall pay for all breakages or other damages to the property of the Club, caused by them or their guests.

13. All complaints or suggestions must be made in writing to the Secretary or to the proper Sub-Committee.
